TRADING PLACES

Do you ever wonder what it would be like to step into another person's shoes? Live in their house? Work at their job? Socialize with their neighbours? Entering its second season, Trading Places is an exciting real-life show where real people trade towns, houses, jobs, hobbies, schools, and even friends and relatives. Families have no idea where they'll be going or what they'll have to do, presenting a very unique opportunity to walk a mile in someone else's footsteps.

In each hour-long episode, two real-life Canadian families trade places with each other for three days. One week, a family of Alberta dairy farmers might trade places with a corporate family from Toronto; the next, a military family from Newfoundland and a houseboat-dwelling Saltspring Island family could exchange lifestyles. Trading Places is a show about challenges, surprises, emotions, and triumphs as family members find ways to adjust and cope in their new environments and circumstances.

*Join the Trading Places families as they adventure
