WEATHER UNTAMED

"EVERYONE'S TALKING ABOUT IT."

Humankind, for all its accomplishments, is still at the mercy of the skies.

Not your everyday weather report; prepare for a severe weather watch. Look into the eye of the storm as we meet Canada's most notorious and eccentric character, who is arguably the most dramatic influence in Canadian lives. Its antics provoke a fascination as vast as the land it controls.

As the obsession with the subject grows, are the extremes expanding as well? The episodes explore this question through weather's hottest (and coldest) topics: what happens when its pressure builds up, its wild windy flurry of activity, and the violent temper of its temperatures. Above all, clouded in mystery by its skies, veiled in secrecy by its fog, ephemerally illuminated by its lightning. Full of surprises, don't take this personality for granted. Most importantly, when talking about Canadian weather, never say never.

Filmed throughout the Never-Never Land of Canada, where pigs fly and Hull freezes over, this five-part series reveals unbelievable, yet historical events. Ruling both with an iron fist and a helpful hand, weather has a hand in making almost anything possible. Ultimately, for all its accomplishments, Canada remains under the thumb of its chaotic climate.

EPISODE #1 WHEN PIGS FLY

Through charts and chants, spleens and sayings, Canadians struggle to sniff out the forecast. Meet predictors and predictions as accentric as the weather they foresee.

The Weather Sniffer, The Saxby Gale, St Swithin's Flood, Pig Spleen Predictions, Flying Pigs.

EPISODE #2 KILLER FOG

Seeing is believing in this episode where smoke and fog inhibit viewing, causing witnesses to question their vision. To see or not to see, that is the question.

The 1962 Fog Bowl, The Mt. Slesse Plane Crash, The Highway 401 Disaster, The Hamilton Red Haze.

EPISODE #3 WEATHER TWISTS

When air is pushed to its extreme ... weather's flurry of activity and twists - what happens when its pressure builds up?

The Winter Tornado, The Fire Tornado, The 30 Million Tree Fall, Edmonton's Tornado Disaster.

EPISODE #4 WEATHER WARS

A Weather War is waged on the West Coast during the last years of the millennium. Weather unrest each year between 1996 & 1999 in British Columbia heightens anxiety as residents witness assaulting threats from the sky.

Weather Bomb, The Victoria Snowstorm, Lightning Attacks, Buried Alive, The Trudeau Avalanche, El Nino Allergies, Black Bear Siege, Firestorm, Spider Shower, Wind Brigade, The Heaviest Snowfall.

EPISODE #5 WHEN HELL FREEZES OVER

Presented are the chilly depths, icy extremes and snowy heights of Canadian weather, too extreme for thermometers.

Ice Storm, Niagara Stops Falling, The Coldest Day, Newfoundland and Ontario's Roof Collapse Catastrophe.
